APPENDIX: STATE LEVEL PUBLIC HOUSING DATA (Cont'd)

	Estimated Number of Public Housing Units, 2008	Percent Elderly	Percent Disabled	Percent Families with Children	Percent Other (Non-Elderly, No Children, Non-Disabled)

*Percentages add to more than 100 percent because elderly families with children are counted as both elderly and families with children, and non-elderly disabled families with children are counted as both non-elderly disabled and families with children. More detailed breakdowns (such as the number of elderly families with children and the number of families that are both elderly and disabled) are available from HUD's Resident Characteristics database at <https://pic.hud.gov/pic/RCRPublic/rcrmain.asp>. The percentages in this table were downloaded from RCR on September 9, 2008, and reflect data reported to HUD for the period May 1, 2007 to August 31, 2008.

State percentages do not include complete data from agencies participating in the Moving to Work (MTW) Demonstration that have more than 10% percent of the state's public housing units.

CBPP estimate of units available currently or in the near future, based on HUD data. See Technical Appendix.
